

The High School Daze

Navigating the Maze

Thursday, March 30th, 7:00-8:30pm

Trinity Memorial Church • 22nd and Spruce, Philadelphia

You are invited to a panel discussion on what to look for in a high school for your child.

Panelists

Eileen Dwell / Retired Philadelphia and Suburban Principal

Anne Hall / Middle School Counselor

Tina Kluetmeier / Parent of Rising High Schooler

Kathryn Snyder / Art Therapist and Counselor

Cost

- Event is free, but registration is preferred.
- To register, see www.centercityresidents.org
- Reduced membership fee for joining CCRA will be available at this event.

The Program

Hosted by the Education and Family Committee of Center City Residents' Association (CCRA), this program will include brief presentations by each panelist, a question and answer period, and refreshment time to mingle with other parents.

Topics Include

- Understanding your rising high schooler.
- Identifying educational opportunities.
- Wading through the admission process without stressing (too much).

Need More Information?

Contact the CCRA office at 215-546-6719 or centercity@centercityresidents.org.